The house is in a quiet residential neighborhood in San Francisco, well-located with easy connections to the rest of the city. This ample and beautiful house is suitable for a growing family and it features a nicely maintained yard, beautiful carpentry, and ceramics throughout. The two-story house has an abundance of natural light and a functional layout and has easy access to the patio and a yard with a private pool. The ground floor consists of a spacious and bright living room with fine furniture and luxurious decoration. The kitchen counts with luxury appliances and breakfast nook bar. The master bedroom includes a king size bed and comes with its own ample bathroom. The decoration is its finest with pendant lights and an exit to the pool and terrace. The secondary and third bedroom includes a single bed and TV.
