The largest floor space that can be built is 0.6 x 1.8155 ha, which is equal to 10,893 m². This area includes all the storage places outside.

50%, or R9,077.5m, of the cost is covered.

Industrial buildings, such as those that make signs, pet supplies, windows, cabinets, and lights, as well as panel beaters and lights.

Storage (even outside storage spaces as long as the things being stored aren't taller than 2.5 meters)

Distribution centers, wholesale trade, warehouses, labs, offices, retail trade, and other uses closely related to and supporting the main land use, as well as a home for a security guard or caretaker.

50% of the story was covered.

A Site Development Plan must be sent to the local government and accepted before building plans and site development can happen. Along with the SDP, there must be a storm water design layout plan made by an expert.
