Split-level family home with one story. Right across the street from this house is a park that is great for little kids to play in. The street is nice and there are lots of trees there.

This lovely house has three large bedrooms. There is a full bathroom right next to the master bedroom. There is a large eating nook, beautiful countertops, and a separate scullery in the kitchen. The dining room is open to the French-style kitchen and leads to a patio with a built-in braai. The formal lounge is completely different, which makes it a great space for kids. The huge study is a plus because it can be used as a home office. The yard is easy to take care of, neat, and well-kept.
