Pierre Van Ryneveld is a small suburb in the southern part of Pretoria. Roads R21 and N1 are easy to get to. The Irene Village Mall and the Castle Gate Shopping Centre are places to shop. There are both older, traditional family homes and younger, more modern homes in the suburb. Getting an education A 10 minute drive will take you to the Pierre van Ryneveld Christian Academy Independent school, Cornwall Hill College, Waterkloof High School, and Monument Park Primary school.

This house is in a great spot on a busy street. You can live and work from the same place, which opens up a lot of options. The house can also be bought as an investment that will bring in money through rent.
