Katherine & West is located in the middle of the Sandton Business District, which makes it easy to get to because it is connected to the M1 and other major roads. The Sandton Gautrain station, Nelson Mandela Square, Sandton City, and a group of hotels with foreign brands are all within walking distance of the building.

The inside of this business building looks modern, and there is a coffee shop right there. Having backup engines and water tanks ensures that work can continue even when there are problems.

As you walk into this office space, you'll see that it already has a plan set up with a welcoming reception area and three beautifully designed meeting rooms of a good size. There is a large boardroom that can be used for official meetings with bigger groups. There are a lot of private rooms set up in a way that lets in a lot of natural light. There is a nice place to rest and a kitchenette in the office for staff use.

The office also has a big open space that is fully carpeted and leads to a private balcony.
