The Place is a high-end industrial building in Sandton, which is a major business hub. It has a great address and stunning views of Johannesburg. The building recently got a major makeover, so it now has modern touches and features like shared boardrooms, work spaces, a restaurant on the ground floor, and other high-tech conveniences. In addition to being close to the Sandton City Shopping Mall, the building has a canteen on-site for the convenience of its tenants and guests.

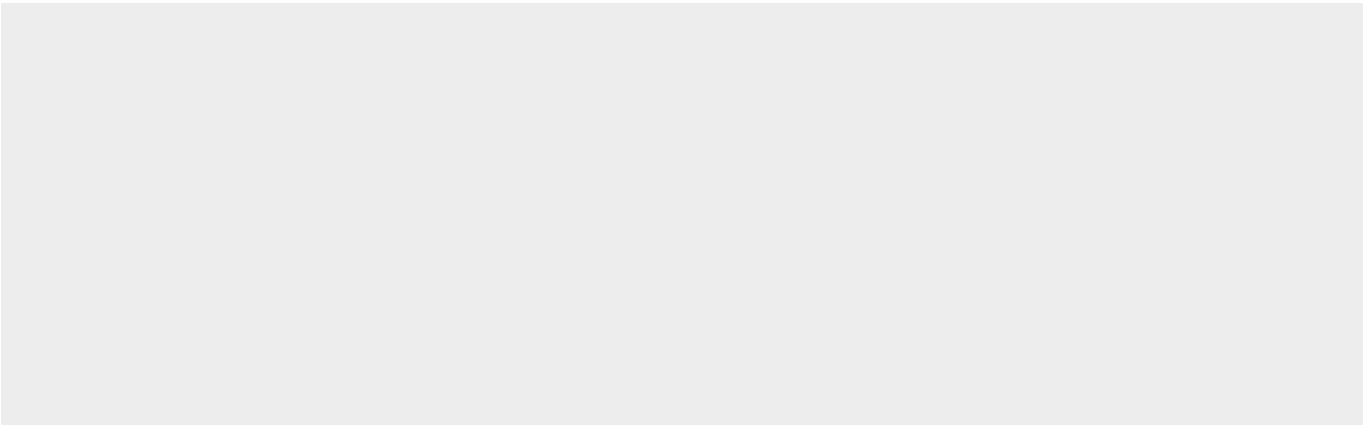

At The Place, safety is very important, so there is a secure boomed parking door and a staffed front desk. The building also has a backup generator, a water supply, and fiber connection to meet the needs of its tenants.
