Katherine & West is right in the middle of the Sandton Business District, close enough to the M1 and other major roads to make it easy to get to. The building is right next to the Sandton Gautrain station, and it only takes a short walk to get to Nelson Mandela Square, Sandton City, and many hotels with foreign brands.

The inside of this high-quality office building has modern features and a coffee shop for your comfort. There are backup engines and water tanks so that work can go on without stopping.

This office already has a welcoming reception with wooden floors that makes people feel welcome. This leads to a separate bathroom and kitchenette. A little further down the hallway, there are offices of different sizes and two big open spaces. A small porch is just for the office and can't be shared.
