This fresh commercial park stands out at the corner of Cumberland Road and Grosvenor Road in the busy Bryanston neighborhood. It's even more handy because it's right next to the Bryan Park Shopping Center and the Bryanston Country Club is easy to get to from the highway via Winnie Mandela.

The office park has beautiful grounds and a water fountain that make it a nice place to work. Security is very important, so the office park has security services that are on duty 24 hours a day.

Office space is offered on the ground floor and is presented in a "white box" condition. This method of starting with a blank canvas gives you the amazing chance to shape and arrange the space exactly how you want it. This blank canvas lets you make the space completely your own, whether you want to make an open-plan workspace, a set of rooms separated by walls, or any other layout that works for your business.
