Style meets comfort in this three-bedroom apartment in the upper Sea Point area. The kitchen, open-plan living room, and eating area all flow into a large balcony that is great for hosting parties. A brand-new swimming pool has been added to the balcony, where you can enjoy the stunning Cape Town sunsets. There are three bedrooms in the apartment, and two of them have their own bathrooms. Every bedroom has carpeting. There is also an extra room in this flat that can be used as an office or a playroom for kids. There are two covered parking spaces and two storage rooms on this building. The complex is also watched over 24 hours a day. An apartment that is priced to sell, so don't miss this chance.
