You have to see this high-class, safe home, which has all the comforts you might be looking for. Through double-volume doors, you enter a hall with a feature wall and a gas fireplace on both sides. All of the floors are laminated with a beautiful light flooring that lets in a lot of light. From this main entrance, you can get to the lounge, kitchen, TV lounge, eating room, and guest bathroom. The kitchen has a gas stove and oven, as well as room for two under-counter appliances and a double-door fridge. It's well lit with bay windows, and the breakfast table faces the small but manageable yard. A place to enjoy. The bedrooms are on the second floor, and two of them share a full bathroom with tiles that are both very pretty and unique. There is room for a king-size bed in the main bedroom, which also has some very pretty tiles. This house has a study, a double garage, an inverter, and a room for staff that is made up of a big bedroom with a kitchenette, a shower, a sink, and a toilet. Get in touch right away to set up a private showing.
