This house is right in the middle of Broadacres and is perfect for having people over. The home is close to all kinds of services and is in a safe, well-run development. It has 4 bedrooms, which is plenty of space. The living areas are all open to each other and lead out to a large balcony with a built-in braai. The kitchen has a gas stove with an electric oven and room for one under-the-counter appliance. The scullery/laundry has room for three under-the-counter appliances. There are 4 bedrooms. The master bedroom has a space with a gas stove that can be split in half and used as a private lounge area. It has its own bathroom, a walk-in closet, and two doors that lead to the yard and pool. The second and third bedrooms are also downstairs and have king-size beds. The fourth bedroom is upstairs, has air conditioning, and a balcony with a view of the yard that is watered. The home has many useful extras, such as fiber-ready wiring, an alarm system, a sound system installed throughout, laminated flooring, blinds installed, a double garage, and a place for staff to stay. It also has the equipment an inverter needs.
