The house is in a high-end security estate. The open kitchen, dining room, and living room is one of the best things about this house. For your comfort, there is air conditioning in the living room. A covered porch is just outside the French doors and is a great place to live or have guests over. The kitchen has granite countertops, an electric stove and oven, room for two under-the-counter tools, and a fridge with one door. Downstairs, there is a bedroom, a full bathroom, and a study with French doors. The third and fourth bedrooms are upstairs, each with its own bathroom. The master bedroom has air conditioning. This house has a small yard that is easy to take care of and a double garage.
