With every luxury one could want, this elegant and secure property is a must-see. Enter the entry hall with a feature wall and a double-sided gas fireplace through double volume doors. There is a gorgeous light laminate flooring throughout, adding a lot of natural light. This central reception serves as the hub for the dining room, kitchen, TV area, lounge, and guest cloakroom. With two under-counter appliances, a double door refrigerator, and a gas range and oven, the kitchen is well-lit with bay windows and a breakfast bar that looks out over a tiny but manageable garden. A place to be delighted in. The bedrooms are on the upper level, and two of them share a complete bathroom with exquisite and unique tile work. A king-size bed may be accommodated in the main bedroom, which also features unusually lovely tiling and a walk-in wardrobe. This property includes a study, a double garage, an inverter, and staff quarters with a sizable bedroom, a kitchenette, a shower, a sink, and a toilet.
