In this secluded, north-facing property with plenty of room and ambience, live a calm and easygoing existence. This family home, one of five, is uniquely designed and features high-quality finishes throughout that are elegantly and stylishly presented. A classic house with a dash of style and sophistication. A striking double volume entry greets you and leads to roomy reception areas ideal for entertaining guests and a laid-back family lifestyle. Including four open-concept reception areas and a large covered terrace that opens to a private, well-kept garden with a swimming pool. Offering five light-filled bedrooms, including an opulent master suite with an abundance of wardrobes and access to a private balcony, as well as a well-equipped gourmet kitchen with workspace, a separate pantry, and a scullery. The house has three ensuite bedrooms as well as a large two-bedroom apartment that is perfect for visitors or extended family because it has its own kitchen, bathroom, living room, and separate entrance. The house, which has five bedrooms and is versatile, is accessible from the flat inter. The house also has twin garages with plenty of additional parking, as well as staff quarters. Contact us today for an exclusive private viewing.
