Luxurious four-bedroom home in a peaceful area of Dainfern Golf Estate with a breathtaking north-facing orientation. This house has an open floor plan with water features, double-volume ceilings, and other amenities. All of your culinary needs are met by the well-equipped kitchen, which includes a coffee bar, gas stove, and separate scullery. There is enough of space for lounging as the large living area opens up to a covered patio. The house has three bathrooms, four bedrooms, and a guest bedroom on the ground level. With breathtaking views of the well-kept garden below, the master bedroom leads onto a large balcony. A sparkling pool, a well-kept garden, and an enclosed patio are some more delights. Notable features include two garages, a driveway, and staff quarters with a kitchenette. For increased energy efficiency, the property has solar panels and an inverter system installed.
