This single-story, three-bedroom home, with its neutral color scheme of white, grey, and stone, perfectly blends into the surrounding natural surroundings, is a representation of classical modern architecture. You can entertain guests and unwind at the same time in this home thanks to its simple layout. As you get toward the back of the property, the lovely walled garden affording you solitude flows into the covered built-in braai. You are spoiled with a separate scullery with a water point for your dishwasher, so you can stop hiding dirty dishes. The bedrooms are bright and roomy, with ceiling-height BICs in every bedroom.

This residence, which is tucked away toward Phase 1's center and will be ready for occupancy in October 2024, offers round-the-clock manned security.

Select from a variety of finishes to give it a unique look.
