This is your chance to establish a home on a safe estate in the center of Kuils River. Wouldn't it be nice to return home to wide open spaces, parks, ponds, and views in plenty, where kids may play outside and ride their bicycles with no restrictions, and where winding walks carry you beneath stone pine trees? Stonepine Crescent is a great area to start a family or a young couple looking to make their first investment in their future and become part of a vibrant community.

This is a brand new development with off-plan opportunities, ready for occupation between May and December this year.
