The ideal dual-living residence! The kitchen and living room are open-plan in the main house. The wood-burning fireplace in the lounge creates a warm and welcoming ambiance. It's simple to host visitors and have family meals together thanks to the open-plan design that flows easily into the dining area. There is a bar area and another lounge in the house for entertaining. The pool and covered terrace are accessible through the pair of sliding doors. With the movable roof of the undercover patio, you may choose how much shade or sunlight it receives. The patio and pool area make the ideal backdrop for leisurely outdoor get-togethers. This house is perfect for entertaining guests and spending quality time with loved ones because of its great entertainment flow and large living areas. With each bedroom having a view of the pool area, the bedroom wing has an ideal flow. There is an en suite bathroom in the master bedroom. To accommodate the two bedrooms, there are two more bedrooms and two baths. You can easily use the study in the bedroom wing as a fourth bedroom, depending on your needs. This property has two living areas: a large, fully independent living space and a separate, fully furnished one-bedroom en suite. This has a kitchen, dining area, and lounge for comfortable and private lodging for visitors or visiting family members, as well as an excellent workspace for working from home. The domestic room now serves as a laundry space complete with a toilet and sink. There is a private second undercover braai area behind the flatlet in addition to the covered patio off the second lounge. Two Jojo tanks are used to collect rainwater for the garden's watering system. The home has two garages and a covered carport, so there is plenty of space for many cars to park. With numerous bedrooms, distinct living areas, and entertainment areas, this house provides a flexible and roomy living space overall. For those seeking a cozy and fashionable house, the utilitarian design, practical amenities, and plenty of parking make it a desirable choice. Make this your home today by calling to arrange a viewing!
