A high-end unit with lots of natural light and space in a great spot. Two good-sized bedrooms, a living and eating area that is open to each other, and a covered patio that leads to a small, private balcony with a built-in braai. The kitchen has a light wooden finish and black marble countertops, as well as a lot of storage space. There is a shower in one bathroom and a tub in the other. The whole unit is made of tiles. The unit comes with two parking spots. A lot of parking for people. There is a clubhouse, a swimming pool, squash courts, and a tennis court at the property. There is strict entry control and well-kept gardens that are manned 24 hours a day. It is close to the Downtown Area of Sandton, Gautrain routes, shopping malls, schools, and important roads and highways. This really lovely flat is perfect for a young professional couple and could also be used as an investment. One Lock up garage, One Carport. Make an appointment to see it today to discover its unique charm and potential.
