This newly built two-story masterpiece is a testament to modern luxury and stunning beauty. It is located on one of Cape Town's most prestigious streets. From its unbeatable vantage spot, the residence offers breathtaking views of the ocean and the beautiful Atlantic Sea Board. When you walk into this luxurious home, the ground floor is a gourmet's dream. The kitchen, which has modern Siemens appliances like a high-tech gas stove, is a great example of how to combine modern ease and elegance. It is connected to the kitchen by a separate scullery that is filled with lots of cabinets and a large double sink, making sure that style and usefulness go hand in hand. As you go deeper into the main floor, you'll reach a beautiful dining room that leads to a private wine cellar, which is a treasure trove for wine lovers. Here, a collection of good wines can be shown off and enjoyed in a classy setting. Next door is a large sitting room that looks like a great place to relax and have fun. The room's perfect design and thoughtful setup make watching TV in the evenings even more appealing. On the ground floor, there is a large wooden deck that feels like entering a heaven of leisure. A large area with a swimming pool and a luxurious spa, surrounded by soft loungers that make you want to relax. The outdoor area is centered around a charming fireplace that is surrounded by built-in seating, making it a magical place to meet. An area set aside for braais is ready to host cooking adventures for people who love eating outside. As you climb to the first floor, you'll find three luxurious bedrooms with private bathrooms. This is where you can relax and unwind. The first two bedrooms are the most luxurious in the house. They have walk-in closets and luxurious full bathrooms. These rooms lead out to large balconies with views of the sea that go on forever, letting residents become one with the beautiful seaside scenery. Even though the third bedroom is smaller, it's still very comfortable, with a built-in closet and a bathroom next door with a shower that will help you relax. There is a yard area in the back of the house. For people who love cars, there is a double garage with extra store space and a safe place for cars to stay. The addition of a lift makes it easy to get to the upper floors, combining functionality with style. In conclusion, this beautiful home is a perfect example of how to combine brilliant architecture, stunning views, and high-class living. An unmatched way of life has been shown by this masterpiece, where every detail has been carefully thought out to provide comfort, luxury, and breathtaking views. At the property, there is an alarm, CCTV cameras, and armed defense. Make this your home today by calling to arrange a viewing!
