This modern Victorian-style two-story home has been completely remodeled and is a secret gem. It is located on a quiet street but is close to the busy Kloof Street. This semi-detached home has 3 bedrooms and 2 bathrooms. It has the right mix of classic Victorian charm and modern elegance.

First Floor:

The living room is beautifully decorated and has a fireplace as soon as you walk in the front door. The room is filled with natural light from the tall windows, which gives the classic wooden floors a warm glow. This warm room flows easily into the dining and kitchen area that is open to each other. The modern style of the kitchen includes smart storage solutions, built-in cabinets, a gas stove, and an island table that's great for making meals and drinking coffee in the morning. Next to the kitchen is an internal courtyard with a barbecue area where you can eat and rest outside. There are two of the three bedrooms and a bathroom on the ground floor, which makes it a great place for family or friends to stay.

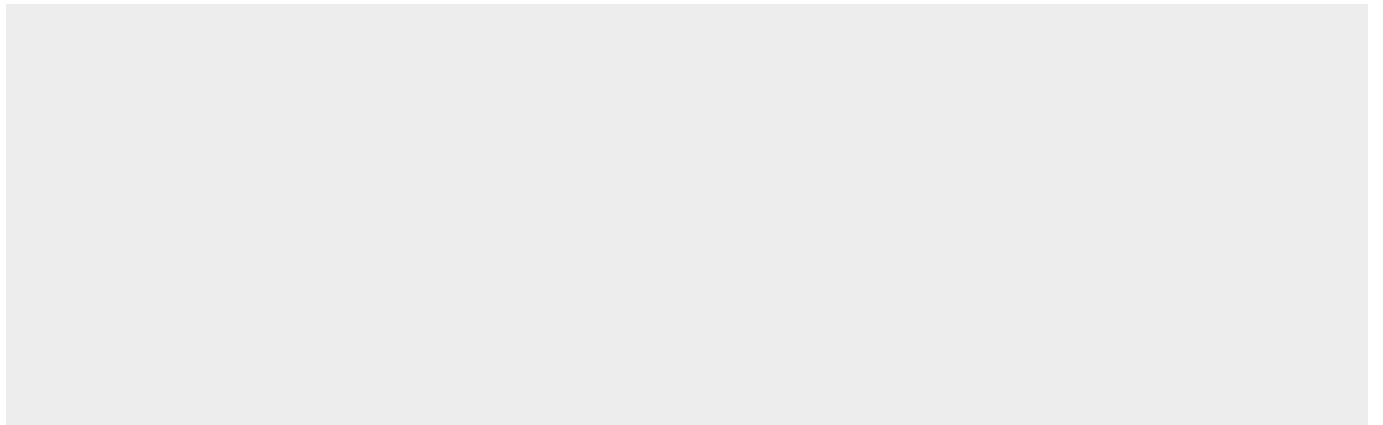

First Floor: The carpeted master bedroom with en suite bathroom is on the first floor and offers comfort and privacy. This bedroom is very large and has built-in cabinets. It also has a very nice full bathroom.

Outside Space:

Safe parking spots next to the house offer ease and peace of mind. business Chance: This property is currently rented out, which means it makes a good amount of rental income. This makes it a good business chance. This modern Victorian-style home has the best of both worlds: it's on a quiet street, but it's also close to Kloof Street, which is full of life. It is a one-of-a-kind property that could also be a good investment because it has been carefully restored and has a classic look. Make an appointment to see it today to discover its unique charm and potential.
