Here is an interesting commercial building in Salt River that has a great mix of character, renovation, and location. The renovations to this one-of-a-kind house has made it a real gem, full of character. Located on the busy Sir Lowry Road, this building is in a great spot, right across from The Palms in Salt River, which is known as a design hub. This amazing building has three floors and about 1962m² of gross lettable area (GLA). It's a large and flexible space for your business. Each floor has a large area of about 650m², which is plenty of room for a wide range of business activities. The house has a lovely atmosphere because it lets in a lot of natural light. Convenience is very important, and this place doesn't let you down. There are designated parking spaces at the back door of the building and a large open space next to the building, which makes parking easy. This great spot is right in the middle of Salt River, making it easy to get to a busy creative and commercial area. Because the area is close to major routes and has great transportation and connectivity choices, your business will get a lot of exposure and be easy for people to get to. Contact us right away to set up a showing and find out what this amazing building can offer you.
