This huge property, which covers an area of 1512sqm, is a masterful mix of high-end private living and business potential. There are about 25 carefully designed rooms for rent, so the place works well for both private living and profitable business activities. The architectural brilliance of this home is clear in how well it combines comfort and usefulness. Careful attention to detail goes into every room, making them a peaceful haven for residents and meeting the many needs of business tenants. Because the plan is flexible, it can fit a variety of businesses. This makes it a good candidate for commercial rental. In addition to being beautiful, the property is a business success story that brings in a lot of money. Its smart location and flexible layout make it a great investment for people who want to make money from both residential and business properties. This property is the perfect example of what can be done in both a rental business that does well and a luxury home that people want to live in. Don't let this rare opportunity pass you by.
