This is a Victorian-style house with lots of space, high walls, and character. It's in the exclusive Morningside neighborhood, which is full of luxury properties. Once you get there, a well-kept paved driveway will take you to a big garage, covered parking, and a large outdoor space with a garden and a beautiful pond. Step into this beautiful palace, which is great for living in style and has enough room for a big family. Starting with a huge, light, and open living room that's meant to fit all occasions, from entertaining guests to unwinding after a long day, the downstairs welcome space connects to the rest of the home. The beautiful English-style garden and sparkling pool are the focus of this stunning home. You can get to them from the hallway that connects the kitchen, dining room, and covered outdoor entertaining area. The pool and garden blend seamlessly with the rest of the house. A formal dining room is located opposite to an immaculate kitchen that is integrated into modern living and has antique wooden built-in kitchen cupboards, granite tops, effective extractors, a built-in hob, and a breakfast area that leads to a reasonably large scullery with its own sink, washing machine plumbed, and plenty of storage space. The dining room and kitchen both have antique wooden foldable sliding doors. Four bedrooms are accessible from a pyjama lounge through a wooden L-shaped staircase. Two spacious bedrooms with carpeted floors connect to a shared bathroom with a tiled shower, a sink, and a toilet. There is a bathroom with a tiled shower, a sink, and a toilet that is shared by two large bedrooms with carpeted floors. These two bedrooms each have a deck that looks out over the front of the building and gives you a clear view of the city and the sea. Third bedroom is very big, has a lot of closet space, and has its own bathroom. The luxurious, extra-large master bedroom has wooden floors, carpeted floors, a walk-in closet, lots of storage space, and a beautiful en suite with a shower, sink, bathtub, toilet, and carpeting. It's fit for royalty. Enjoy the sunsets in the evenings from the private balcony off the master bedroom. It looks out onto a lovely outdoor area where you can connect with nature. Don't let this rare opportunity pass you by. Contact us today for an exclusive private viewing.
