This colonial home is in a great spot in the Morningside neighborhood, where you can enjoy the beauty of architectural design. Get ready to be blown away by how beautiful this house is. When you walk through the stacked doors, the imported parquet flooring leads you to a second room that sets the stylish mood. Built-in cabinets, room for a double-door fridge, a high-powered extractor, Caesarstone countertops, and a scullery area make the dining and kitchen rooms very roomy. The entertainment area has a built-in bar with an old-fashioned look. There are double doors, shutters, and a fireplace in the large room. With four bedrooms, each with its own private bathroom, the house has plenty of space. The master bedroom is a real haven. It has a private lounge that leads out to a patio, a dressing room, and a bathroom with marble tiles, a toilet, a shower, and his and her sinks. When you go outside, you'll find a lovely entertainment area that blends in perfectly with the house. It has a pool and a beautifully landscaped yard. It also has extra parking, three automated garages, a place for staff to live, and three covered parking spots. The well-thought-out granny cottage is an extra treat. This property is in a great spot, close to Clifton School, and is surrounded by high-end homes. This makes it a perfect home for people who want both elegance and convenience. Make an appointment to see it today to discover its unique charm and potential.
