This inconspicuous plot is one of Durban's most popular landmarks, consisting of various residences and four different land ERFS with three separate drive-in access points for a total of roughly 3053 square metres and 16 rooms. A uncommon find that serves as an excellent source of cash.

The Tills Crescent Lodge is located next to the well-known Tills Crescent Pool. The mood here is one of a cottage-style charm that extends into the courtyards and welcome leafy gardens.

All of the homes are similarly designed, with empty suites and kitchens for seclusion. Some rooms are wheelchair-friendly. The benefit is that the events location, which is self-contained at the further end of the land, has a separate entrance for visitors and service providers.

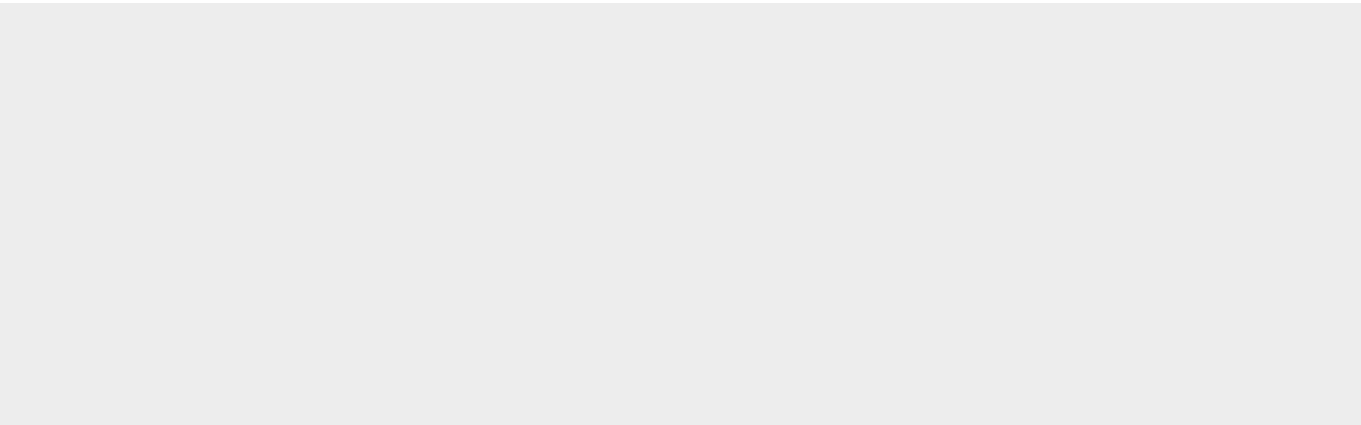

The catering facility fits the requirements for both types and adult parties. All of the parking facilities are surrounded by automated gates.

This guesthouse is currently working. The images presented do not capture this concept of the land.

Call Richard or Tina for a personal tour of this facility to become acquainted with this fantastic income-generating property.
