Come home to the life of luxury as you sit high up on the Glenwood hills, admiring not only the beauty of the city, but also the grandeur and charm that surrounds every part of this house.

Offering more than just a house, the incredibly spacious 5 room office has its own private entrance, courtyard, and multiple options for usage as an office, income-generating flatlet, or extended family. This room is great for professionals who want their own office or work-from-home space that is fully distinct and independent of the main residence.

Drive up to your home's front door and go inside to be greeted with shimmering wooden floors and towering ceilings, which are only the beginning of this home's amazing beauty. Wander from room to room as you move from one lounge to the next, taking in the big dining room before ending up on the covered balcony, which offers breathtaking views of the city and the Durban Harbour. You will find a kitchen appropriate for the largest of families, complete with stone worktops, a fitted stove/oven, and a separate scullery.

A tv lounge downstairs complements the master suite, which must be seen to be believed, and includes a full walk-in closet for the largest of wardrobes, an en suite bathroom with a double shower, double basins, and a bath tub for relaxing after a long day while opening up to the beautifully manicured lawn.

This exceptional offer includes domestic accommodation, a storeroom, 24/7 roadside security, remote control gate entry, and views that will never grow old.
