Introducing this magnificent house in the center of Musgrave. There are four bedrooms and four bathrooms in this opulent corner home with entries from both streets.

The St. Thomas Road Musjidus Salaam and DHS are both close to this property. The house has an office, a spacious split-level dining and living area with a separate private living area on the upper floor, and a large, fully equipped Cherry-wood kitchen and scullery.

One of the two completely furnished granny cottages, which promises a great rental revenue stream, is accessible via a lock-up automated garage. This excellent home is a great option for comfortable central premium living or company operation, and it has secure parking for up to 5 additional vehicles.
