There are stunning views of the sea from the open-concept living area of this elegant, modern property. There is a scullery that leads to the garage and a neatly constructed kitchen. T he light wooden floors throughout the house are in pristine shape. The main bedroom and the second largest room in this house have en suite bathrooms, while the third bedroom utilizes the family bathroom located in the corridor.

The playroom/second lounge can be enclosed to make a fourth bedroom. There is a single air conditioner in each bedroom. With its stacking back doors that seamlessly integrate the internal living area and captivating views of the sea, the patio is the ideal place for gathering and unwinding.

A contemporary one-bedroom flatlet on the property is available for rent and can also be used to house family members and visitors. A beam system, alarm, and electric fence provide excellent security. Make an appointment today for a private viewing.
