Are you looking for an exotic home high up in the trees? It sure feels like it!! Boasting a double-story home with excellent wide area upstairs for the entire family to enjoy, with a bathroom large enough to accommodate a lounge suite!! I am serious; it will.

A warm kitchen Welcomes you as you enter the house via the steps from the street level. With a huge open room and two lounges that lead out to a patio area, you can enjoy both summer and winter. Upstairs, there are two bedrooms, a huge bathroom, and an entertainment area. Downstairs, there are three rooms and a bathroom with a separate door that might be rented out or used by a large family. This area works well as a standalone space or as part of a larger home.

The house has a mix of old and new. An artist's retreat with character that exudes warmth and welcome, making you want to stay longer. There is so much to this place that you should take your time and enjoy it. This property is unique, with plenty of nooks and crannies to discover.

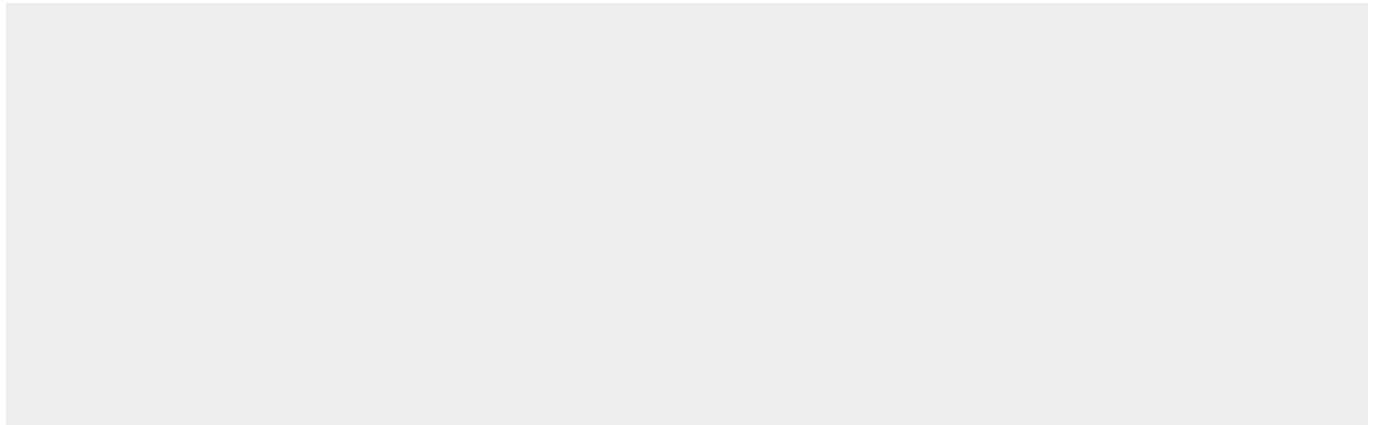

Googling the Banfield name, after whom the Crescent is called, reveals a rich history. It is said that the Banfield family grew up here and liked to explore the region, looking for war relics left behind.

Please keep in mind that while electricity is not included, water is.

I look forward to walking you through it one-on-one; call me soon if you're searching for something a little different.
