This open-concept apartment provides a large, airy, and well-lit 171 square meter living space. The entire area has tile flooring, which gives it a sleek, contemporary appearance. With its end corner location, this unit offers more seclusion and peace.

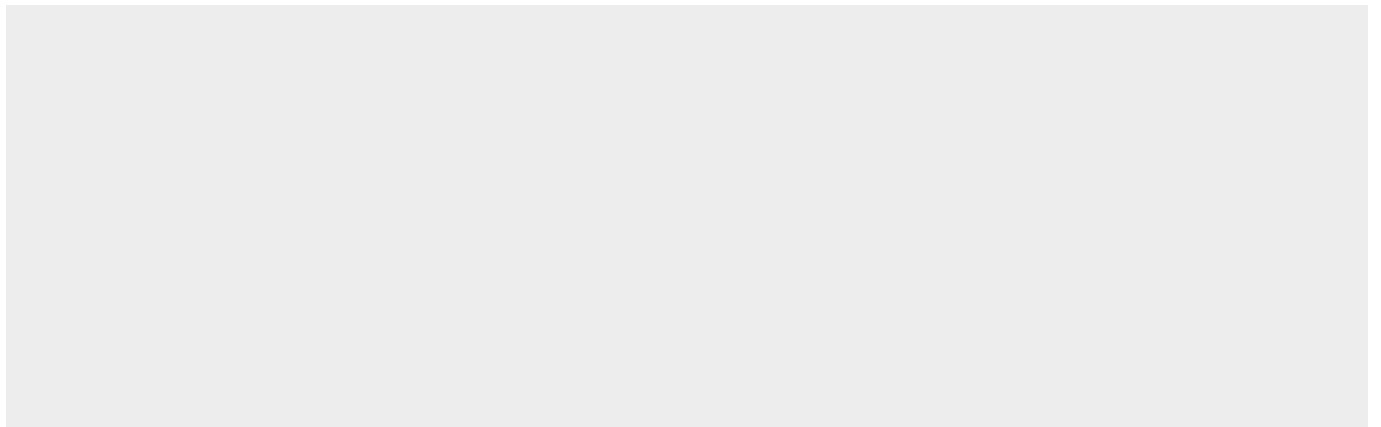

Excellent security measures are in place to provide residents peace of mind. This unit's big covered patio, which offers lovely views and the ideal place to unwind or host guests, is one of its features.

You'll find three bedrooms, each equipped with a full en-suite bathroom, and there's even a dressing room for added convenience and storage. The complex has manned security on duty around-the-clock to guarantee the safety of all inhabitants.

It is also handy for visitors to visit because there is plenty of visitor parking available. Granite worktops in the kitchen lend the room a refined appearance. And to top it all off, the complex has a pool that offers a cool sanctuary on hot days. This apartment is a great option for people looking for a spacious and luxurious living area because it combines comfort, style, and security. Make an appointment today for a private viewing.
