This executive and classy home in the exclusive neighborhood of Bryanston will take you into a world of comfort, safety, and endless perks. This house is perfect for people who want a home that shouts "Location, Location, Location." It is on a quiet cul-de-sac and has its own private security gate.

The Bryanston Country Club is only a two-minute drive away. The location of the house is very paramount, and the surroundings are great, but wait until you see the inside of the house.

As you drive up to the house, the lush grounds and presidential-style feel of the driveway will take your breath away. A paved path goes up to the five-car garage, which is right next to the front door.

The double doors lead to a beautiful foyer area with a chandelier, balustrades, and steps leading up to the large bedrooms in this Tuscan-style home. On either side of this reception area are 2 formal lounges, set with decadent finishes for both, a fireplace in one and an air conditioner in the other.

Both of these living areas have outside access, with one going to the grand patio available in the garden. A dining room is placed next to the kitchen and features a lovely glass sliding door, allowing so much natural light into the space with all its glory.

The family room is a place of wonder and such good times ahead, with large space, a fireplace and an array of sunshine beaming through the borderless glass stacking doors.

A bar is also set next to this space, making it a haven for entertainment that extends onto the patio and over looks the lush front yard and pool area. Along with all of the benefits in the living area's which include intercoms that allow you to communicate between the different sections of the home, air conditioners, sky lights and light features that add to the air of vibrant and beautiful ambiance that the home exudes.

The study area of the home is next to the lounge and is a classy space that offers plenty of space for 2 work or more working stations, with the benefit of a toilet there for ease of access. A granite top and tan wood look and feel to the kitchen makes the space a natural delight to be in, while the glass corner sliding doors allow access to the domestics quarters and backyard while bringing in ample light into the area.

The guest bedroom is found downstairs and enjoys its own en-suite full bathroom, with the extensive space in the room being the name of the game for every single one of the bedrooms the home features.

Upstairs we find an additional 5 bedroom suites with 4 of them enjoying en-suite bathrooms, walk in closets and so much more. Bedroom 2 and 4 both have pyjama lounges to enjoy on those lazy days when you don't want to get out of your room.

Bedroom 1, which is currently being used as a pyjama lounge, enjoys balcony access shared with the master bedroom of the home and just accentuates the perks of living in a home like this, what it is to have a spacious and accommodating home where everyone enjoys their time together, yet the space to have their own privacy and time alone as we all so often need.

The master bedroom is a marvel that will easily blow one's mind, with a walk in closet just being the beginning of the benefits. A bathroom with a massive shower is further into the suite, with a normal bath tub and a jacuzzi style tub also available on the other side of the shower to enjoy a spa like setting where you and your partner can just relax and fade the day away.

The home also has an inverter, electric fence, cctv camera system, a domestics quarters, Sunroom section and adjacent to that, additional garden space outside the office and a private a secluded relaxation area next to the pool.

The patio goes across a large portion of the north facing of the home and has a built in braai and plenty of shelving space for all those extra cushions and outdoor furniture bits we love to enjoy.

The counter space on the patio has a food warmer and really, there are so many features in the home it would be difficult to try and explain them all, YOU'VE GOT TO COME SEE IT FOR YOURSELF!
