This home, which is in the private Dainfern Golf Estate, has beautiful entertainment areas, comfy living areas, and luxurious bedrooms. The main areas for fun are all open and have views of the yard and pool. The kitchen, eating room, and palatial-sized living room/TV room are all open to each other.

The main entertainment areas overlook the pool and garden. These areas include the kitchen, formal lounge, dining area, bar, and undercover patio. The kitchen space is ideal for easy entertaining with the dining room adjacent to it as well as the patio.

It also has a walk-in pantry and a separate scullery. The large patio overlooking the pool and garden, is perfect for families who enjoy spending time outdoors. The property also has a built-in barbeque area next to the pool.

The main lounge and dining have stunning wall to ceiling windows/doors and an oversized fireplace perfect for more formal entertaining. A bar next to the patio complete the entertainment spaces. For convenience, an en-suite guest bedroom is located downstairs with doors that open onto the garden.

There are two more bedrooms with good sizes upstairs in the house. The upstairs master suite is very large and has a patio. It also has a walk-in closet and a full bathroom with his and her sinks. The second bedroom on the second floor also has its own bathroom with a shower.

There is a study that is separate from the living areas, which is good for professionals who work from home. The interior throughout the home is illuminated with the abundance of natural light.

Extras include staff quarters, 2 garages, underfloor heating, air conditioning, automatic changeover backup power system, 7 additional parking spaces and pool.

Important things to note:

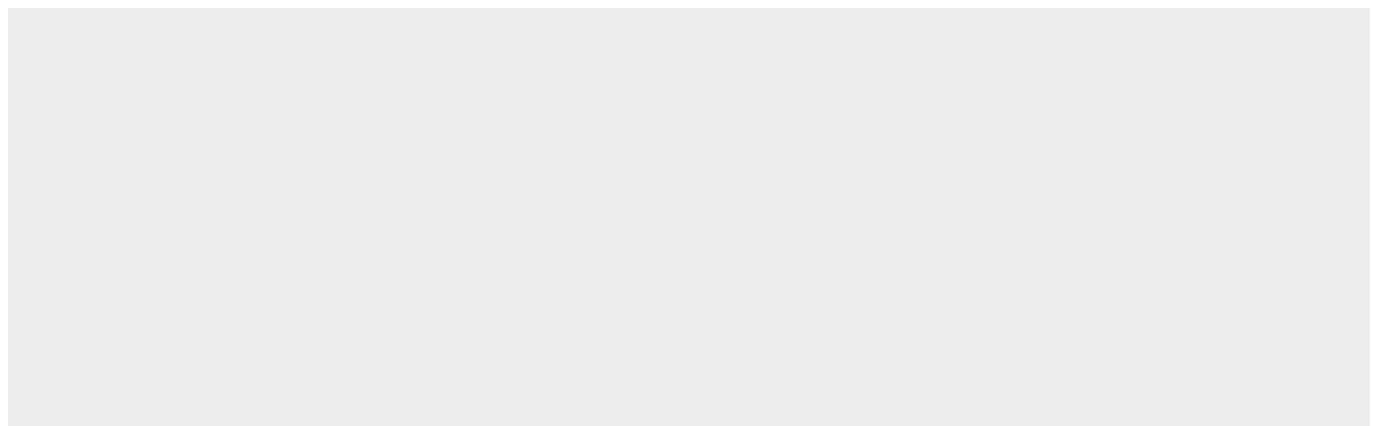

1. Garden and pool service not included.
2. Estate levy for tenants account.
3. Automatic changeover backup power system.
4. A furnished rental option is available at R60,000 per month.

If you want privacy in a fantastic location, this is it!

View strictly by appointment only.
