excellent opportunity for a guesthouse, medical practice, private institution or a retirement facilitycalling all investors!!!!

This property has phenomenal potential and there is much opportunity to use the existing structures to ones advantage. The Facility provides sufficient Onsite Parking, with separate Access and Exit gates, which can be used for different land uses, compatible with the residential area.

The Property is well maintained and has endless possibilities. Single-phase and three-phase electricity as well. Bryanston, Gauteng is an affluent residential suburb of Sandton, South Africa.

First named as an area in 1949, it was established in 1969 as a suburb of Sandton. Bryanston is bifurcated by Bryanston Drive, running from the outskirts of Randburg to the beginning of Morningside.

The long-established Bryanston Country Club, founded in 1948, is in the heart of Bryanston. Families with school-aged children compose a large part of the Bryanston community due to the excellent private school system that is ranked as the best in Gauteng.
