Whispers of Tuscany in Hout Bay This home is set high in the hills of Hout Bay overlooking the ocean in front with an incredible view from the outside pool and covered patio, while to the left lies the nature reserve and views of Chapman's Peak, inside the high exposed beam ceiling gives the home a lovely light and airy feeling added to by the fact that the house surrounds a lovely courtyard area with a fountain. The lounge, dining room and kitchen are open plan with sea views, a small closed off playroom is attached and a separate formal lounge is perfect for entertaining. Two bedrooms both en suite and one with a small lounge area are downstairs and in another wing there is a lovely spacious guest suite or granny flat. Upstairs there are two gorgeous bedrooms both en suite – the main bedroom with it's unbeatable views of the bay is a good place to get away from it all. Three garages and outside parking. This 6 bedroom, 5 bathroom home offers secure living and is perfect for a family that enjoys entertaining.
