Nestled amongst the most imposing mountains, hundreds of Hectares of elegant vineyards, houses dating back to the first settlers, and the location of some of South Africa’s best wines. Walking distance from the restaurants along the main street of the culinary capital of South Africa. This is a landmark home designed along the lines of a French country chateau it is the flagship of the exclusive, secure estate Domaine des Anges, “The home of the Angels”. There are 5 en suite bedrooms, 9 bathrooms and an attached 2 bedroom flat. Soaring double volume ceilings, and an open plan kitchen with room for a 14 place dining table, a small lake right off the front patios all make this house truly special. There is an underground wine cellar with room for over 2000 bottles and a tasting area. 5 patios, 2 studies, travertine marble floors throughout the house, and uninterrupted views of the mountains. The garage holds 4 cars and there is adequate secure parking for at least 20 more. The estate offers a clubhouse, gym, tennis court, a salt water pool and beautiful gardens under massive oak trees. High walls, a manned gate, cameras and electric fence ensure your absolute security. The furniture has been designed around the breathtaking scale of the high ceilings and dramatic rooms. Most of it is available to stay with the house.
