The Punta Barco Resort community rarely sees turnover among its elite clientele as it provides exceptional privacy, seclusion and security. The tree-lined roads are narrow and meander through unique villas that range from modern to hacienda style; and although the community is small, they talk fondly of their neighbors and enjoy a good balance of privacy and camaraderie. The resort is in finishing stages of a beautiful recreation center and offers such amenities as tennis courts, pools, private beach access, and a helicopter launch pad... perfect for easy travel to and from Tocumen International Airport. All of the shopping and dining amenities of Coronado are at your fingertips and the city is only an hour away. Here you will live in the company of world travelers, elite politicians, and successful business owners from Panama and around the world. Please feel free to call me personally any time for information or to arrange a private viewing. We also have a 3-D tour available for your convenience. " – Karla Adams +507-6390-5229
