At La Chaumière the owners have created an exceptional home but have also retained it as a true working farm. This beautifully positioned family home is set in a quiet and private pocket of Franschhoek, it is ideal for the large family and for the entertainer. This is the ultimate luxury estate, located in the middle of one of the most desirable towns in South Africa. Franschhoek lies just 45 minutes from Cape Town, surrounded by some of South Africa's top private schools and luxury wine estates. From this estate one can walk to some of South Africa's best restaurants. The home comprises 4 en-suite bedrooms, a beautiful reception room with wood burning fireplace, a large kitchen with top of the range appliances and gas stove, plus breakfast room, a formal dining room, lounge and an informal lounge that could be converted into another bedroom. The front patio boasts a wood burning pizza oven and the back patio accommodates the "grill area", a 18 m heated rim-flow swimming pool and a fully equipped gym with sauna / hammam, a tennis court and it's own helipad and hanger. Enjoying an idyllic elevated position, mountain views, sculpted gardens and excellent flow between inside and out, makes this one of the most desirable residences in Franschhoek.
