At the end of a quiet Palmira privada a stairway through a front garden leads to the entrance of Villa La Escondida, an appropriate name for this quaint hideaway nestled on the barranca with the sounds of the creek below. The spacious covered terrace is the meeting area to relax and gather with friends and family. The kitchen and living room with glass doors are conveniently close by. There are three private bedrooms each with hand tiled bathrooms and the ample master suite boasts a sitting area, two walk-in- closets and a massive bathroom. The glass mosaic swimming pool and lounging patio have complete privacy and enjoy magnificent views of the unique terraced garden. A two car garage and service area with bedroom, bathroom and kitchenette and laundry room complete the construction. If tranquility is what you are looking for then Villa La Escondida is the place for you.
