Baylofts at The Ocean Club was designed as a unique experience for its inhabitants and this property is a true sample of that. The studio apartment is completely furnished to make you feel the luxurious experience of a hotel room, with the necessary comforts of a home. The open bathroom is a very modern concept that allows the room to feel more spacious without losing the necessary privacy. The bathtub is set up a beautiful wooden structure that acts as a blind but still allows you to look at the ocean as you relax with a bubble bath. The best feature of this apartment is being truly ocean front. Whenever you are in need to detach from the noise of the city, you can sit on your balcony and hear the waves crash against the rocks, only a few feet away from you.
