The loft has two balconies on the street and is completely restored and brand new, merging the classic elements of the building and the industrial elements characteristic of the area. Emphasizes the luminosity of the house as well as the design and details with which the high quality reform and excellent finishes have been carried out. The doors are made with an aluminum cladding and rivets that give it a very modern look. The kitchen is made of lacquered natural sheet and is fully equipped with integrated high-end appliances (washing machine, dishwasher, refrigerator, oven, micro, integrated hood and induction hob).
