Melrose Arch is a popular mixed-use precinct north of Johannesburg. This popular destination houses numerous high-end tenants including Spanish fashion retailer Mango, as well the famed Moyo restaurant. British Airways, Allan Gray and Royal Bafokeng Holdings are among the precinct's commercial tenants. Liberty said the acquisition was in line with their investment strategy. Liberty has various interests including property, insurance and asset management. These offices offer a large floor plan with views into the central atrium as well as over the M1 Highway to the east. The fit-out is of a premium grade and is comprised a numerous executive offices and a boardroom.
